

ANNOUNCEMENT: TRAINING FOR MEDIA PERSONNEL ***

Dear All,

The Ghana Civil Society Organizations (CSOs) Platform on the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and Media Foundation for West Africa (MFWA) in partnership with Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH are pleased to announce a training workshop for media personnel on June 18, 2020.

The purpose of the workshop is to equip participants with the professional skills and ethical discipline needed for covering and communicating the COVID-19 pandemic. The training will address issues of: ethical reporting, understanding and interpreting Covid-19 related data and public health concepts, identifying and addressing fake news, and staying safe while reporting under COVID-19 conditions. There will be a half-day follow-up training session on July 9, 2020 to address questions and gaps identified during Covid-19 related reporting after the workshop.

Qualification

To qualify to participate in this training; you must be:

- * A radio journalist
- * Passionate to learn about ethical reporting during a pandemic
- * Willing to participate in a virtual (online) training session
- * Willing to do a report on COVID-19 after the first training session
- * Resident in any of the regions of Ghana
- * Women are particularly encouraged to apply

Registration

- * There is no registration fee
- * Send an email to csoplatformsdg@gmail.com expressing your interest to participate in the training.
- * The deadline for registration is close of day, 14th June, 2020
- * Participants can/must be from across the nation.

Certification

Participants would receive a certificate after the training.

Enquiry

For enquiries kindly call or WhatsApp Kofi Amankwah (026 2554457)